ELIGIBILITY

We offer financial support to young people interested in folk dance, to further their understanding and enjoyment, and to keep cultural dance alive. College, high school, and in special situations, middle school students are invited to apply for this scholarship. Please tell us about your interest in folk dance, your experience, and how this scholarship will help you. Attach a statement (2-3 paragraphs is fine) to this application.

Determination of eligibility and amount of scholarship will be at the discretion of Northwest Folkdancers, Inc.

AGREEMENT

If awarded a scholarship by Northwest Folkdancers, Inc, the applicant agrees to write an article for the NORTHWEST FOLKDANCER newsletter within three months of return from said camp. (Article deadline is the 10th of the month, for publication the following month. Articles should be emailed to [nwfolk dancers@gmail.com](mailto:nwfolk dancers@gmail.com).)

Possible topics include, but are not limited to:

1. What the camp or workshop meant to you.
2. A special experience you had.
3. How you plan to use what you have learned.
4. How your camp experience inspired you to encourage other young people to folk dance. Please include photos.

You are invited (though not required) to visit a NFDI club and teach a dance or two that you learned at camp. This would be greatly appreciated. We also hope you will share what you learned with your school and community. Folk dance needs you!

Financing for the camp may include scholarship money from Stockton Camp, assistance from the local club, and contributions by the applicant and/or applicant's family, in addition to the scholarship money provided by Northwest Folkdancers, Inc.
